

CHRISTIAN JOURNAL for GLOBAL HEALTH

Research and Reflection in Christian Health Policy and Practice Worldwide

www.cjgh.org

Since June 2014, publishing articles on global health that are open-access (freely available), scholarly (thoughtful and peer reviewed), with a diverse intercultural and inter-denominational Christian perspective. Integrative articles draw upon multiple disciplines in health and theology. Increased understanding of health and healing is missional and will stimulate a new level of conversation for the healing of the nations.

Greatest need: Original research articles, Review Articles, Case Studies, Commentaries, Field Reports

New Calls for Papers: Disability and Global Health, Caring in Conflict
